This delightful property on 590 square metres is secluded behind attractive native gardens and offers excellent coastal accommodation in walking distance of school, golf, cafes and shops. Starting life as a classic timber beach house, it has been substantially improved and is now very stylish, comfortable and modern, enjoying distant views to the golf course and beach.

The kitchen is at the heart of the home and forms the middle of an open plan L shape with a lounge at one end and family/meals at the other. With dishwasher and stainless steel gas cooking, the kitchen is fabulous and sure to please any cook. The combined space has raked ceilings, hardwood flooring, wood heater and loads of windows, making it large, open and sunny with a wonderfully relaxed and inviting feel. A wall of glass doors provides easy access to the generous North facing outdoor entertaining deck. With both covered and uncovered areas, the deck is perfect for entertaining all year round.
