

78 Taits Road BARWON HEADS VIC

3 1 3

Here is a great opportunity for first home buyers or property investors alike; a solid brick veneer home in the thriving coastal township of Barwon Heads. Neat as a pin, this three bedroom home has a lovely spacious block and pretty street front, making a great first impression.

With a bright and airy interior, the open plan kitchen/living/meals area provides both comfort and practicality. The well designed kitchen has lovely timber benches, plenty of cupboard space and an electric oven. The lounge area centers around a delightful Coonara wood fire heater, while a reverse cycle air conditioner allows for year round comfort. The area has convenient and stylish floor tiles; ideal for family life.

All three bedrooms are spacious and have built-in robes. The large master bedroom, at the front of the home, has convenient access to the main bathroom. With both shower and separate bath the well presented bathroom is great for a growing family.

The main living area opens onto a sunny deck that would be perfect for entertaining. The large, securely fenced
