This modern property is nestled on the fringe of the popular Kingston Estate and boasts a lush rural vista.

The home is still under construction but such is the popularity of this neighbourhood that prospective buyers are advised to get in early or risk missing out.

The contemporary layout consists of three bedrooms, master with en suite, separate bathroom and laundry and a large kitchen, dining and living area.

The kitchen is a master chef's delight with stone bench tops, glass splashback and smart taps and stainless steel sink.

An electric oven, gas hotplates and a stainless steel dishwasher complete the picture.

By any standards this is a quality abode offering a low maintenance and comfortable lifestyle.

There's a garage for the family car and landscaped gardens and grounds that include drought resistant turf, river rock and mulch, and Jarrah garden edging.

The builder's specifications call for quality fittings and fixtures to be used throughout.

These include modern-style taps and electrical and light fittings, and tasteful tiles and carpet.

The immediate neighbourhood consists of neat, modern
