Indigenous and productive gardens steep this fresh and funky beach home in privacy. Set meters from the Barwon River, and on a safe walking route to the beach, shops and school, the lifestyle offered is a desirable one.

Designed to harness the beauty of the garden environment, life here is as much about outdoors as indoors. The northern façade delivers a sundrenched deck and welcoming entry porch both nestled by organic gardens. A garden path links to an expansive western deck shrouded by ornamental grapevines with pizza oven for easy entertaining. This bespoke alfresco living hub is straight from the pages of a garden design magazine.

Contemporary style continues indoors. The open plan living zone is full of northern light and adjoins the entertaining deck. Spotless and fresh, the kitchen offers an electric cooker and servery window to those enjoying the deck life. Plantation shutters and a split system assist comfort.

Northern glazing in the main bedroom frames the relaxed porch vista. En suite access to the large central bathroom is ideal. Private garden views grace the other bedrooms, all
