The Feel:

Architecturally designed to enhance everyday life, this beautifully finished home adds understated luxury and quality to time spent at work, life and play. Premium quality surfaces, appliances and finishes meet cutting edge design, with generous, light-filled spaces that include courtyard gardens that invite light and natural ambience into the home. The functional layout flows from the study and secondary living space located near the entry, through to open plan living, kitchen and dining that connect with a distinctive alfresco zone.
