

65 Carr Street Barwon Heads VIC

3 2 1

This solid and character infused family home is located in a premium river-end location.

The north facing open plan living and dining is roomy and highlighted by timber veneer wall panelling and a featured leadlight window. The kitchen is well laid out and provides ample storage options, sitting adjacent to a second meals space with convenient access to the patio outside.

The three bedrooms are linked via a common hallway, the master hosting the luxury of an ensuite and a beautiful outlook over established native gardens and trees. A spacious main bathroom features original tiling in immaculate condition.

Exit through the laundry to the backyard, offering an amplitude of space across a flat, grassy landscape bordered by mature trees and native shrubs, giving hint to that Barwon Heads of old that Carr Street is renowned for.
